*[The Advertiser report may be incorrect here. There was a Colonel Richard Linton, Commanding 6th Australian Infantry Brigade, Australian Imperial Force, who died “from shock and exposure following the torpedoing of the Transport HMT Southland.” He died in Lemnos, Mudros, Greece on 2nd September, 1915. This information was extracted from the Commonwealth War Graves Commission (CWGC) Casualty Records Transcription, Canberra.

The authors have been unable to find any reference to a Brigadier-General Linton who died from gunshot wounds following a Gallipoli Beach landing.]
